Dear Alex, we are here in VT. You are listening to the man from Entergy who has such a thick Spanish accent that its not fair . not easy, and not helpful to the clarity of the process.

I do love Spanish..... Its a beautiful language - but a different one. Hls English is a problem.

I am thankful that you seem to be able to focus on the particulars, although the bottom line is that we are going to have to turn a corner, and see that those who want to make money, and should make a living , can make it while helping the planet and the people on it. Is it helping the planet to create radioactivity ? How can we help the nuclear industry become a new industry that it needs to be to fulfill people's needs to live on a planet of beauty, full of life, and fraught with challenges that are enough to give us work , but not enough to take life from us all. ???

At some point, health of the planet is paramount, even more so than war, and peace, the work of peace is as profitable , even more so, when the benefits are measured in terms of respect earned , and shared love.

I have enjoyed thinking about your job, and your responsibility, and do also enjoy your team, and your manners, and would like to lead you to what joys I can share, although the biggest joy I have found on earth, besides the beauty of nature, is the beauty of music. I don't know if or when you will ever be able to get what I have to offer on that . So, at least I can do

I wish you peace through music,
take care,
with peaceful love,
Emily
